

Road Trauma Support WA 2019-20

86% of annual survey respondents strongly agreed or agreed that they were satisfied with their experience with RTS WA (n=55)

54% of enquiries, workshop and support clients reside in regional WA (n=272)

RTS WA closes the gap on victims of road trauma that have irreparable damage from horrific incidents that occur on roads all too often

846 counselling instances delivered

154 counselling clients

30 community events attended

9% case management

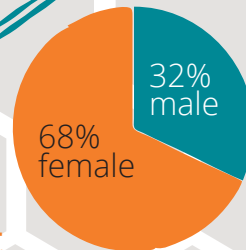

43% in-person

RTS WA "is an excellent, necessary service for our community"

8% online

40% via phone

RTS WA is A very needed service that provides the best counselling and advice for grief survival and finding a way forward from that dark place of annual survey respondents who accessed RTS WA resources strongly agreed or agreed that the resources increased their knowledge of how road trauma affects people (n=31)

94%

89% of survey respondents who accessed the counselling service strongly agreed or agreed that the counselling helped them with their issues and/or concerns (n=57)

RTS WA "has been very helpful in my grief journey"

109% increase in the number of print resources distributed (n=27,913)

11 regional towns visited

